

Is a solar park in French Guiana ready for green hydrogen production?

French hydrogen technologies developer HDF Energy (EPA: HDF), investment fund Meridiam and petroleum operator SARA have launched construction of a solar park with batteries and 16 MW of electrolyzers for green hydrogen production in French Guiana.

What are ETFE solar panels?

ETFE (Ethylene Tetrafluoroethylene) is a type of plastic that's starting to replace glass as the cover for solar panels. It's lightweight, flexible, and lets through more light than traditional glass. Pros of ETFE Panels: Lightweight: They're about 1% the weight of glass panels. Flexible: Can be curved or shaped to fit different spaces.

Are ETFE panels a good choice for a roof?

Weight: ETFE panels are the clear winner, making them great for roofs that can't handle much extra weight. Cost: Monocrystalline panels are usually cheaper upfront, but ETFE panels might save money in the long run due to easier installation and maintenance. Lifespan: Monocrystalline panels have a proven long life.

What is the difference between a monocrystalline and ETFE solar panel?

Efficiency: Monocrystalline panels typically win here, but ETFE's high light transmission helps narrow the gap. Durability: Both are tough, but in different ways. Monocrystalline panels resist impacts better, while ETFE handles UV rays and chemicals like a champ.
