

Is foreign help enough to fix Iraq's energy problems?

Foreign help is not enough to fix energy issues, domestic reform is necessary. This past July, Iraq and France's TotalEnergies finalized the Gas Growth Integrated Project, a $27 billion energy deal aimed at Iraq's natural resources and improving the country's electricity supply.

Who are China's oil companies in Iraq?

China's influential energy entities, including China National Petroleum Corporation (CNPC), have been entrenched in Iraq for years, marking a significant transformation of international oil companies within the nation.

What will Sonoro energy and Transatlantic do in Iraq?

Under the terms of the HOA, Sonoro Energy and TransAtlantic will collaborate closely to identify and evaluate production investment opportunities in Iraq. These opportunities are expected to arise through licensing bid rounds and/or direct negotiations facilitated by Iraq's Ministry of Oil.

Does Iraq have a natural gas deal?

In 2022, Iraq was the second-largest source of gas flaring worldwide, second only to Russia. The TotalEnergies deal aims to help Iraq harness the natural gas emitted by its oil wells, achieve a more balanced energy portfolio, and address some of its domestic electricity shortages.

Should Iraq trade oil for Iranian gas?

According to Prime Minister Mohammad Shia al-Sudani, by trading Iraqi oil for Iranian gas, Iraq would avoid power cuts in the summer while working on the deals to complete gas capture and extraction projects that would help make the country self-sufficient.

Why is Iraq's energy system vulnerable?

However, the capacity to capture and process this gas has not kept pace. The inability to utilize its gas riches means that the country's gas deficit has grown, and Iraq now relies on imports from Iran to meet increasing demand. This has introduced a number of vulnerabilities to Iraq's energy system.
