Manx Telecom Ltd., a telecommunications company based in the Isle of Man, was created as a subsidiary of British Telecom in 1986. This creation was in response to a tender process announced by the Manx Government in 1985, which sought to award a 20-year licence to operate the telephone system in the Isle of Man. Manx Telecom successfully won the tender and ...

Balancing the Isle of Man's electricity network requires stabilising power; this cannot be provided from sources which are reliant on the weather to produce electricity as these sources cannot be guaranteed at all times. In all scenarios the most cost-effective solution of providing this stabilising power is a new interconnector to the UK ...
